

Mantra for Dancing in the Path of Totality

being is becoming winding and unwinding
the skein of ourselves
from what is
and what will be

count out the numbers
of cells
multiply them
by light
and subtract shadows

but the number
is not a value
it is a rhythm
a harmony
and a dissonance

universe meets us
universe greets us
with a name
written on stars
not recorded on paper

we are ourselves
in every iteration
unerring note
sung
in a divine voice
